

TWEETS

The Islamic Faith
A simplified presentation

GuidetoIslam.com

TWEET 1

Angels in Islam are created from light and have no free will, making them obedient servants of Allah.
Their sole purpose is to worship and fulfill divine commands.

#Islam #Angels #Faith

TWEET 2

Did you know? Gabriel (Jibreel) is the angel of revelation, responsible for delivering the Quran to Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

His role is central in guiding humanity.

#Islam #Quran #Angels

TWEET 3

Angels are assigned various tasks like bringing rain (Mikail), gathering souls (Malak al-Mawt), and questioning the dead (Munkar & Nakir). Their roles are integral to life and the afterlife.

#Islam #Afterlife #Angels

TWEET

4

Angels never disobey Allah in whatever He commands them and always do what they are bidden to do. (Quran 66:6)
A reminder of their absolute submission and devotion.

#Quran #Obedience #Angels

TWEET 5

How does belief in angels affect your faith?

Knowing they record every deed and pray for your forgiveness encourages mindfulness in daily actions.

#Islam #Mindfulness #Angels

TWEET

6

On the Day of Judgment, Israfil will blow the trumpet, signaling the end of the world and the resurrection of all beings. A powerful moment in Islamic eschatology.

#Islam #JudgmentDay #Angels

TWEET 7

Angels are part of the unseen world, but their presence is constant.

They interact with humans by recording deeds and supporting the believers with their prayers.

#Islam #Spirituality #Angels

TWEET

8

In Islam, angels are honored servants, close to Allah, but without divine attributes. They glorify Him night and day, reflecting perfect submission.

#Islam #Obedience #Angels

TWEET

9

On the day He gathers them all together, He will say to the angels: ‘Was it you that these people worshipped?’ They will answer: ‘Limitless are You in Your glory!’” (Quran 34:40-41)

#Quran #Angels #Monotheism

TWEET 10

Belief in angels strengthens a Muslim's faith by reminding them of the divine order of the universe and the unseen forces at work. A key pillar of f #Iman.

#Islam #Faith #Angels

